Family Bible Reading: Colossians 1-4

**Tip if your kiddos are going on the youth trips: split up these scriptures into sections to be read each day over these weeks. Check in with your student at the end of each night to discuss the scriptures as a family. Engaging with your students about the word of God doesn't have to pause when we're unable to physically be together.*

at the town's annual Independence Day Parade. They will also prepare and serve a Sunday evening meal for the church, assist missionaries Chase and Becky with loading and cleaning their home as they prepare to move to North Dakota. Also, on the agenda is hosting a neighborhood block party and other outreach activities to connect the local communities to MGC.

Please keep our group in your prayers. Pray for safe travels, good health, and that God will use each student and leader to be a blessing and an asset to MGC. We also ask that you pray for open hearts as they serve and share Christ's love throughout the week.

God has blessed Bethlehem with godly deacons that serve the church well. Wednesday night, we will study about deacons. Deacons serve the church, guard the unity of the church, support the pastors, and model godly character. That is how Scripture describes deacons, and that is how this church would describe our deacons. Deacons, we love you and we are thankful for your devotion to the Lord and love for His church. Church, be sure to thank your deacons-Jody Smith, Melvin B, Allen B, Don C, George H, Todd H, Bill L Larry M, Thurl S, and Jim T.
