We are blessed to have AJ home for a short surprise visit! For over a year, she has been living in Central Asia, learning a new language, immersing herself in a different culture, building relationships, and getting to know the local community and surrounding areas. Join us tonight at 6:30 p.m. as she shares an update about her experiences. You won't want to miss it!

Service will not be live-streamed.*

Thankful Grateful Blessed

Next Sunday, the church will celebrate Thanksgiving together. Every good and perfect gift comes from God (James 1:17) and He has blessed us beyond anything that can be measured. Sunday morning, we will take a special Thanksgiving offering. Our offerings have been significantly lower than our budget, so this year's special offering will go toward our general fund to help with this decrease. Sunday evening, we will share in a Thanksgiving meal (at 6:00) and share in a few testimonies of God's blessings. "Give thanks in everything; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus" (1 Th 5:18).

The New Testament Church was DEVOTED to fellowship (Acts 2:42-27). They spent time together in their homes. They ate together. They prayed together. Fellowship should be more than a planned event; it should be part of our daily life. However, as we get busy, we often neglect fellowship. Over the next few weeks, we have a few evenings planned to better devote ourselves to fellowship. I hope you will make plans to join us.

Thanksgiving Dinner, Nov. 22

Make plans to join us for a special fellowship meal with our church family next Sunday Night, Nov. 22 at 6 PM in the FLC.

The church will provide the turkey and ham, but we need volunteers to bake them. Rolls and drinks will also be provided. Please bring side dishes and desserts with extra for visitors. There is a sign-up sheet in the foyer; please go by and see how you can help.

Appreciation Baskets at Thanksgiving Dinner

As we gather to give thanks as a church family next Sunday, November 22, we invite you to express your gratitude to those guiding and leading us in word and worship at BBC. Baskets will be available in the FLC during our Thanksgiving dinner to collect cards for Jimmie, Andrew, and Brian.
